ABNAKI, RAH! RAH! RAH!

Summer Camp for Boys Open From June 25 to August 13.

Camp Abnaki, the summer camp for boys at North Hero, is to be open from June 25 till August 13, and those who have been there themselves or heard accounts of the pleasures to be had there will be anxious to go this summer. Any boy in Vermont who has passed his 12th birthday and who is a member of any church, Sunday school, church club, Young Men's Christian association or boy scouts, of whatever creed he may be, is eligible to a trip to this camp. The cost is $4 per week for all camp expenses; $50 for cartage of box; carfare, and any boys not members of the Y. M.
C. A. are asked to pay a registration fee of $50.

Byron N. Clark, state secretary of Vermont, with 11 years of camping experience, will be director of the camp and give the boys his personal supervision, and one of the following will be in charge of each tent: F. A. Cumming of Burlington, Ralph O. Stratton of Montpelier, Milo F. Brown of St. Johnsbury, Rev. Silas P. Perry of Fair Haven, Richard C. Hay of Port Ethan Allen.
There are opportunities for all kinds of sports and the cooking and sanitary arrangements are excellent. The fishing is unexcelled and swimming, baseball, etc., furnish good times. Instructive talks are given and tramps are taken into the country to learn the secrets of nature. A short religious service is held each morning just after breakfast and the day closes with prayers in each tent. On Sundays the boys attend either the Protestant or Catholic church in North Hero. The leaders of the work plan to give a well-rounded vacation in all aspects of life.

Application blanks and all information may be obtained from Byron N.
Clark, Y. M. C. A. building, Burlington, Vt.

The Next Holiday

It is none too early to begin preparations—especially those of a negative nature—for the next holiday. During the last few years people of patriotic sense and common sense have been organizing to abolish its barbaric and unpleasant forms of observance.

At first the term "same and safe" Fourth was treated as somewhat of a joke, but the persistent efforts for reasonable and reasonable safety on Independence day have reduced the number of killed and injured from 5,307 in 1909 to 988 in 1912. That is a reform worth while, but it is a national reproach that almost a thousand persons, most of them young children, were mutilated or wounded last year in the celebration of the national holiday. In the last decade nearly 2,000 have been killed on the Fourth, or died from the effects of Fourth of July injuries, and nearly 40, 000 injured, many hundreds of them crippled for life. No battle in the war for independence saw casualties approaching these appalling figures.

Now, a full month before the holiday, it is the time for the municipal authorities, the committees of arrangement, dealers in Fourth of July supplies, and above all the parents to join in the movement for making a safe and sane celebration of the Fourth a reality, and not an academic proposition.—Boston Herald.

We have moved from 24 Elm street to a larger and more commodious store at 10 Keith avenue, where, thanks to your generous patronage in the past, we are in a position to offer you a much larger selection and opportunity to inspect our goods. This week, commencing June 2, is our ANNIVERSARY WEEK.
We will take particular pleasure in meeting our old customers at our new home during the week and will heartily welcome new ones. Our business is better equipped than ever to serve you by either of our three systems: Cash, Bill Orders or Installments.

We yield to none on cash purchases and can offer you advantages possessed by few on installments or bill orders. Our motto is "Increase the volume of business." There can be no good reason why credits must be confined to bankers, manufacturers and merchants. We will extend the most liberal credit to all resident persons whose past entitles them to credit.

Our Graniteville store under the management of S. N. Prescott will be possessed of all the advantages our Barre store has, as will also our Montpelier agents.

Read what one of the greatest financiers of any age, James J. Hill, said in a speech before the St. Paul Association of Credit Men Feb. 11-13. He said: "The invention of money was a long step towards civilization, but the invention of credit was a greater. The world deals ever more largely with credit. Credit is the motive power of current enterprise." We respectfully agree with Mr. Hill and conduct ourselves accordingly.

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Of a herd of 42 cattle belonging to the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, which were tested recently, all were found free from infection.

The Rutland Business Men's association is considering the offer of the Wonam's club to have the latter's rooms used during the summer as rest rooms for shoppers.

Dr. W. S. Vincent, who celebrated his 73rd birthday anniversary Wednesday in Burlington, with Alvaro Aditt introduced the first telephone ever used in that city.

Henry Patterson, who had reached the age of 97 years, died recently at his home in Montpelier. His wife, who died about a month ago, had reached the age of 87.

Mrs. Almira Mason of Rutland, who was accidentally shot in the head by her grandson Monday, is comfortable.
The bullet is still in her head and the X-ray will be used to determine its location.

It is feared that Henry Long of Chittenden may lose the sight of one eye as a result of a blasting accident, Saturday.
One blast did not explode and Mr. Long began to drill for a second, when the first went off and blew the powder into his face, injuring his eyes and hands.

During a ball game on the common in Townsend Tuesday, the ball slipped from the hands of Pearl Starks and hit Wilbur Snyder, who was sitting on the ground nearby, breaking his nose and cheek bone. It is hoped the injury will not prove fatal, but Mr. Snyder's condition is serious.

Frank Kenniston, who lives between St. Albans and Swanton, started Wednesday to drive from his home to the former city, but on the way jumped from his wagon and ran into the woods and has not been seen since. His team returned home without him. It is feared he is suffering from a mental trouble.

The gypsy band, which has been "doing" Vermont, was ordered out of Middlebury, when many of the women purchased goods at the stores and then refused to pay for them. When the band reached Keene, N. H., the chief was arrested and locked up, it being alleged that sums of money of varying amounts had been stolen from people by the gypsies. The money was secured, the national holiday. In the last de-
the Fourth, or died from the effects of
Fourth of July injuries, and nearly 40,
000 injured, many hundreds of them
proaching these appalling figures.

Admiral George Dewey, native of Montpelier, is to receive a sample of the first wall paper used in America, which is now in the hands of Frank Hall of Hartford, Conn. The paper was imported from London, England, in 1738, by Samuel Tallcott, to paper the room in a house in Glastonbury, which was built for him by his father, Deacon Benjamin Tallcott, in 1725-1727. The paper was taken from the walls of the house in Glastonbury and is in as good a condition as when it was placed there, a proof of the good material. Mr. Hall has been offered a large sum by the big wall paper firm of Alfred Pease & Co. of New York for the paper to use in a window display, but has refused the offer. A piece will be sent to Admiral George Dewey, who is a descendant of the Tallcotts. Mr. Hall is as well a former resident of Glastonbury.

MONTPELIER

Beginning next Monday night, a policeman is to be stationed at the corner of Main and State streets to govern the traffic at that point, which is very heavy between 7 and 9 in the evening.

An overhauled chimney in the house occupied by Orville Pinn on Court street was the cause of a still alarm being sent yesterday. The woodwork was somewhat scorched, but the damage was small.

The Burlington high school baseball team won from Montpelier high yesterduck from getting around as well as if it had only two.
